

Association for Rescue at Sea, Inc.

Sir Stuart Matthews, KON
Biography

Born and educated in the United Kingdom, Stuart has lived in the USA for over 40 years

Career

- | | |
|-------------|---|
| 1953 – 1964 | The de Havilland Aircraft Company, Hatfield, England UK
Advanced Aircraft Design |
| 1964 – 1967 | British aircraft Corporation, Bristol, England UK
Senior Sales Engineer - Concorde SST |
| 1964 – 1974 | British Caledonian Airways, London, England UK
General Manager – Corporate Planning |
| 1974 – 1994 | Fokker Aircraft USA, Washington, DC
President and CEO |
| 1994 - 2007 | Flight Safety Foundation, Washington, DC
President and CEO |

Professional Qualifications

Chartered Engineer; Fellow of Royal Aeronautical Society; Fellow of Chartered Institute of Transport

Honours and Awards

Knight of Orange Nassau. Bestowed for services to aviation
Honorary Doctor of Aviation, Embry Riddle University
Honorary Doctor of Science, University of Hertfordshire
Life Governor, Royal National Lifeboat Institution

Boating

Having been an avid pleasure power boater for some 40 years, Stuart now seeks to apply his aviation safety experience to improving boating safety.